K. U. STUDENTS GIVE $160,000.

Fifl Quota for New Stadium—Ask $40 From Each Student.

The students' part of the drive for a million dollars to build a stadium at the University of Kansas as a memorial for the K. U. men who died in the World War, will go well over the $160,000 quota when the final pledges are in.

Each student is asked to pledge a minimum of $40. The pledge blanks take the form of non-interest bearing promises and payments may be arranged in any amounts semi-annually. The last payments are not due till November 1, 1921.

Why Will Your Neighbor Be Thankful?

He Owns a 1921 Buick

He knows he has a car in which sureness of operation, economy in upkeep and enduring strength are inherent qualities.

He learned of the Buick Valve-in-head Motor fame and bought.

The rugged sure working engine, the graceful sweeping lines, the roominess, smooth riding and appointments made him know why the new Buick is the car men like.

He is thankful for he has made the whole family happy with a gift that never grows old.

See the new model where he bought his.

As it graceful glides down Broadway in the Homecoming parade grads of '28 and '29 alike will admire The Gardner-Light-Four.

It is a harmonious well balanced automobile, pleasing to the eye, comfortable to the occupant with a sense of power and security to the driver.

GARDNER

It is twice valuable. It has every detail of beauty and simplicity and is yet paramount in actual usefulness and practical convenience.

The way it rides, the broad wide opening door, the angle of the dash, the half oval mouldings, the outside door handles spell beauty and style which lingers in the car lover's mind.

Are You A .

Palmist?

You'll find your "life line" much longer and broader if you'll join. Incidentally "the mount of love" will loom much higher with the requirement of membership.

Dodge that "dark man" who is trying to enter your life by joining immediately. Then you can recognize him for he is none other than Kid Gloom, the joy-killer.

Sunshine, friendship, smiles and laughter are your deadliest weapons against him. The Palms is your arsenal—so hang around headquarters. The Palms is the closest, most convenient and most solicitous for your comfort.

We extend a cordial invitation to Alumni and visitors to make the Palms their meeting place. It's on the way to Rollins field whether you are going or coming. You'll find our welcome a warm one and your temporary membership as a Palmist a satisfaction and pleasant memory of your Homecoming trip. Any student will point it out to you if you have not been there before.
